

IPRA Request — ALPR Records — Alamogordo, NM (MuckRock version)

For filing via MuckRock. Terse, no letter framing. MuckRock handles all correspondence.

To Whom It May Concern:

Pursuant to New Mexico's Inspection of Public Records Act (NMSA 1978 §§ 14-2-1 et seq.), I request the following records related to the City of Alamogordo and the Alamogordo Police Department's acquisition and use of automated license plate reader (ALPR) technology, including any system manufactured, sold, or operated by Flock Safety, Vigilant Solutions, Rekor Systems, Motorola Vigilant, or any other ALPR vendor, for the period of January 1, 2023, through the date this request is processed.

This request is submitted by a New Mexico resident and concerns the conduct of public business in this state. The records I request are not exempt from disclosure under § 14-2-1(A) or any other provision of New Mexico law. To the extent any portion of this request is denied or redacted, please provide a written explanation citing the specific statutory exemption relied upon, as required by § 14-2-11.

Please provide copies of the following records. Where records are maintained in an electronic database, I request an export in a machine-readable format (CSV, Excel, or PDF) pursuant to § 14-2-8(B).

1. CONTRACTS AND AGREEMENTS

a. All contracts, agreements, memoranda of understanding (MOUs), data-sharing agreements, license agreements, statements of work, and other binding documents between the City of Alamogordo (or APD) and any ALPR vendor, including but not limited to Flock Safety, Inc.

b. All amendments, addenda, exhibits, side letters, or extensions of the contracts identified in (1)(a), executed or in effect at any time during the requested period.

c. All procurement documents, requests for proposals, requests for quotes, bid responses, evaluation documents, and award notices relating to the selection or acquisition of any ALPR system.

2. POLICIES, PROCEDURES, AND TRAINING

All policies, procedure manuals, directives, standard operating procedures, training materials, and internal guidance documents, in effect or revised during the requested period, that describe:

a. Who within the City or APD is authorized to search, query, or otherwise access ALPR data — including any specific roles, ranks, units, or individuals granted access.

b. The process for granting, revoking, monitoring, or auditing such access, including any controls on third-party access.

c. The circumstances under which a license plate may be searched in ALPR data, including any required criteria, approvals, justifications, or supervisor sign-offs.

[illegible]

New Mexico law requires a response to an IPRA request "as soon as practicable, but in no event later than fifteen days after receipt" for most records (§ 14-2-8(D)), and within three business days for records to which a law-enforcement-related exception may apply (§ 14-2-8(F)). All correspondence regarding this request should be conducted through MuckRock.
